

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT—Continued.

MISS JANIE WHITING IS
THE BRIDE OF W. E. ROSE

Pretty Wedding Is Celebrated at Old St. John's Episcopal Church.

Miss Janie Herbert Whiting was married to Mr. William Edwin Rose, of Washington, in old St. John's Episcopal church, at 6 o'clock yesterday evening. The decoration was pretty and the old edifice was filled with friends of the young bride.

Rev. Reverdy Estill, D. D., rector of the church, assisted by Rev. J. J. Gravatt, D. D., of Richmond, was the officiating minister.

Miss Whiting who wore a costume of biscuit-colored plaid voile, over taffeta, with hat and gloves to match, and who carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, was attended by her sister, Mrs. Thomas Hamden Massey, as matron of honor, and Miss Jennie Jones as the maid of honor. The matron of honor wore a dress of white ecru over taffeta, with white hat and carried American beauty roses. Miss Jones was attired in a costume of pink net over silk, a pink hat and carried violets.

Messrs. Garland Rose and J. P. Rose, of Raleigh, N. C., were the best men, and the ushers were Messrs. Smikins Jones, Robert Holt, Hampton; L. L. Abban, Artie Sutherland, Charles Brooks, Washington, and T. L. Primrose, of Raleigh, N. C.

Following the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Rose went to Old Point, where they boarded a steamer for a wedding tour in the north.

Mrs. Rose is the third daughter of Mrs. Ellen Whiting and the late Algonon Whiting.

Mr. Rose, who holds a government position in Washington, is a North Carolinian and at one time was employed at the shipyard in Newport News in the government branch of the work.

MRS. J. W. TENNIS DEAD.

End Came to This Well Known East Hampton Lady Yesterday.

Mrs. Rebecca Tennis, 45 years old, wife of Mr. J. W. Tennis, died in her residence shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday morning. She had been ill a few days, having undergone an operation recently.

Mrs. Tennis is survived by her husband, one son and one daughter. Mrs. Tennis was a Miss Crockett before her marriage and came from York county.

Funeral services will be held from the Christian church at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and the burial will be made in Oakland cemetery. Rev. Andrew J. Renforth, former pastor of the church, will officiate.

Grocery Firm Assigns.

Messrs. Wood and Nottingham, who conducted a small grocery business in West Queen street, filed a deed of assignment for the benefit of their creditors yesterday. Mr. T. M. Wood is named as trustee. The liabilities are about $900, with assets of about $500.

SHAW DIVORCE INVALID

Woman Who Would Marry an As tor Has No Decree.

COURT RULING KNOCKS IT OUT

Cast-Off Husband, Though, Is in a
Worse Predicament, as He Has Married Again—Decision Obtained in the Wrong State.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, April 18.—The marriage of Waldorf Astor and Mrs. Nanine Langhorne Shaw, which is scheduled to take place this spring, will probably be made impossible by the decision of the United States Supreme Court, which is held to invalidate the divorces of many men and women prominent in society.

The decision of the supreme court, it is said, will invalidate Mrs. Shaw's divorce from Robert Shaw, of Boston. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Shaw lived in Boston, and the State of Massachusetts became their marital domicile.

After the Shaw's separation Mrs. Shaw went to live at the home of her father in Virginia, and there she obtained a divorce. At the time the suit was brought and the decree handed down, it is said, Mr. Shaw was in Europe. Mr. Shaw married again the day following the granting of the decree.

There is much speculation as to what steps Mrs. Shaw will now take. There are those who are of the opinion that the marriage will not take place, or that if it does, it will have to be postponed until new divorce proceedings are instituted in the State of Massachusetts.

DINNER TO MR. ARMSTRONG.

Friends Give Him a Farewell Batchelor Spread at Hotel Chamberlin.

Mr. Richard Armstrong (whose marriage with Miss Rosa Fairfax Lee, will occur Saturday afternoon, was tendered a farewell bachelor dinner in the Hotel Chamberlin last night by a party of friends. Those present besides Mr. Armstrong were Messrs. S. G. Cumping, Marshal von Schilling, Franz von Schilling, Louis Heffelfinger, J. A. Massie, Mathew Armstrong, and Mr. Palen, of Newport News.

Grass Catches on Fire.

A small blaze was discovered in the grass just in rear of the new officers' quarters at Fort Monroe yesterday morning. A general alarm was turned in but the fire was extinguished before the department reached the scene of the blaze.
